Management & Technical Assistance Program
- MTAP -

for Nonprofits

Nedy Windham
P: 612-625-2053
F: 612-625-9056
E-mail: windh003@umn.edu
Web: https://diversity.umn.edu/bced/
2221 University Avenue SE, Suite 136
Minneapolis, MN  55414
• MISSION: Contribute to the economic growth and development of Minnesota communities.

• ACTIONS: Empower diverse, Minnesota communities by developing programs and services that create opportunities for community-based nonprofit organizations and businesses owned by historically underrepresented groups.

  – Supplier Diversity Services
  – Community Training & Employment Services
  – Business & Economic Development Services
  – Community Partnership & Outreach
Management & Technical Assistance Program
- MTAP -

for Nonprofits

PROGRAM GOAL:
Improve the quality of life in Minnesota’s urban communities by enhancing the performance and overall effectiveness of community-based nonprofit organizations that serve such communities.

How Accomplished: By leveraging the assets and resources of the University to support the economic development and revitalization of urban communities.
Projects May Include...

- Fund Development
- Nonprofit Management
- Program Development
- Human Resources
- Operations Management
- Supply Chain Management
- Finance & Accounting
- Strategic Planning
- Feasibility Study
- Demography Studies
- Program Evaluation and Measurement
- Marketing Plan Development
- Business Plan Development
- Market Research and Analysis
- Communications
- IT/Technology Development
- Internet/Web Design
- Management Information Systems
Why You Should Participate

• Lead efforts that directly impact the development of Minnesota communities.

• Gain nonprofit consulting experience that serve diverse audiences.

• Build and apply professional skills.

• Develop relationships through a broader professional and community network.

• Earn $1,050 stipend.
Participation Details

PROJECTS

• Projects require 60-80 hours over the course of one semester.
• Work plans are required by the students prior to the start of each project; final project report and presentation required at the project conclusion
• One or more students may be assigned to a project.
• Students will be selected based on expertise and skills set.
• $1,050 stipend is paid to each student upon completion of the project.

APPLICATIONS

• Spring 2016 applications are now being accepted – deadline to submit application and resume:  Wednesday, January 27, 2016.
• Apply online at https://diversity.umn.edu/bced/
• For more information, contact:

  Nedy Windham
  windh003@umn.edu
  (612-625-2053)